PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, travel in the United States widens the horizon of the traveler through his contact with a cross-section of life that is varied and colorful and acquaints him with a panorama of virgin forests and vast untamed lands to teeming cities of ultra-modern design, and;

WHEREAS, by travel, the native American and his brother traveler from foreign lands tend to reach a common level of understanding as they view for the first time the majesty of a great land and vibrant with potential as yet unrealized, and;

WHEREAS, citizens of the United States learn to bridge the gap of diverse backgrounds and narrow the gulf of misunderstanding by travel to an unfamiliar territory, and;

WHEREAS, the money spent by travelers, including that spent by those from foreign lands, is an important adjunct to the nation's economic strength and the overall well-being of our people, and;

WHEREAS, in order to become better hosts, it is important that the people of South Dakota have an opportunity to learn first hand of the scenic beauty and rich heritage of their native state--

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, do hereby proclaim the period of April 16-22, 1967, as-- in conjunction with the period recognized by the Discover America program established by Presidential Proclamation to promote travel to and within the United States, its territories and possessions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed at Pierre, the Capital City, this 22 day of March, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Nils A. Boe
